INDEX TO VOLUME XL

(NOTE.—In this index the titles of principal papers and headings of departments, as Reviews, are in italics.)

Aberdeen, E., abstract by, 586
Abstracts—
Alabama flake graphite in World War II (Pallister and Smith), 92
Alteration and structure in the East Tintic district, Utah (Lovering, et al.), 598
Antimony deposits of Mexico (White), 96
Application of geology to engineering and ground-water problems in Alberta (Allan), 77
Application of oil well surveying instruments and technical services in the mining industry (Kothry), 89
Application of paleoecological method to an early Tertiary coal seam (Wilson), 608
Application of the ternary diagram to analysis and classification of bauxite reserves (Thoenen, et al.), 95
Artificial recharge of artesian limestone at Orlando, Florida (Unklesbay and Cooper), 95, 606
Artificial recharge of glacial sand and gravel with cold filtered river water at Louisville, Kentucky (Guyton), 85, 593
Artificial recharge of ground-water on Long Island, New York (Brashears), 70, 587
Artificial recharge of productive ground-water aquifers in New Jersey (Barksdale and Debuchananne), 78, 586
Asbestos fibre exploration and production forecasts by cave drilling, Jeffrey mine, Asbestos, Quebec (Foster), 83
Beach intelligence-service of the Beach Erosion Board (Edmunds), 590
Chromite deposits of Camaguey Province, Cuba (Guild and Flint), 592
Composite pegmatites of the Franklin-Slyva mica district, North Carolina (Heinrich), 594
Construction problems: Airfields, roads, and general construction (Denny), 588
Contact metamorphic deposits of cassiterite in California (Page), 601
Coral-reef sediments at Morotai, N.E.I. (Aberdeen), 586
Crucible grade graphite (Gwenn), 86
Deviation of diamond drill holes in the Metaline district, Washington (Sampson and Griggs), 94

Abstracts—Continued
Diamond drill sampling calculations, and comparison of methods (Greenhalgh), 85
Diamond drill sampling and estimation of ore at Mascot, Tennessee (Oder and Allen), 92
Diamond drill sludge sampling and appraisal of a weathered ilmenite ore body, Piney River, Virginia (Davidson), 82
Diamond drilling in exploration and development (Moehlman), 91
Effect of radiation on the elastic constants of quartz (Frondel), 84
Engineering applications of aerial reconnaissance (Belcher), 609
Foundation exploration and geologic studies at Cherokee and Douglas Dams, Tennessee (Laurence), 89, 597
General principles of artificial ground-water recharge (Meinzer), 90, 598
General stratigraphy of the east Tennessee zinc deposits (Oder), 92, 600
Geologic interpretation of magnetic exploration on the Mesabi Range, Minnesota (Jones), 88
Geology and fluorspar resources of the Babb fault system, Crittenden and Livingston counties, Kentucky (Hardin), 86
Glass sand and a glass industry in Puerto Rico (Frazier and Meyerhoff), 83
Graphs for obtaining true thickness of a vein or bed (Miller), 91
Gross petrology of coal in relation to exploration of coal reserves by diamond drilling (Schopf and Smith), 604
Guide to geological investigations of dam and reservoir sites (Burwell), 79
Hydrothermal alteration in the Castle Dome copper deposit (Peterson, et al.), 602
Hydrothermal alteration in the San Manuel copper deposit, Arizona (Schwartz), 604
Illinois Geological Survey's activities in war and peace (Leighton), 597
Influence of rock and soil composition on performance of metallic mine detectors (Roberts), 603
